¶3. Ms. Vilai provided the following responses to reftel queries:

Can you confirm the order under license 05-1012492?
Yes. Ms. Vilai presented four permits for the importation of firearms issued by the Thai Department of Provincial Administration: 553/2549, 554/2549, 555/2549 and 556/2549, dated between August 22, 2006 valid until August 21, 2007 for the weapons outlined in reftel. Ms. Vilai also presented a copy of Purchase Order CRS-112/06, signed and dated September 12, 2006, to the RSR Group Inc. All copies were certified by the Thai Ministry of Foreign Affairs and corresponded with the information provided in reftel.

Where will the items be stored prior to commercial resale?
Ms. Vilai showed POLFSN a Milner combination safe located on the first floor of the shop measuring 1.5 x 2 x 1 meter in which the weapons will be stored. The shop does not have CCTV or a guard and the windows in the front of the shop do not have iron bars.

Can you confirm the security of all items in your inventory?
Yes. Ms. Vilai presented a gun inventory, maintained in a bound book detailing types and serial numbers of guns and the purchaser's data. Department of Provincial Administration officials periodically inspect the inventory ledger.

Who will be the final end-users of these pistols?

Ordinary Thai citizens, civil servants and, law enforcement officials are allowed to purchase weapons with proper permits by the Department of Provincial Administration. A Thai citizen wishing to purchase a pistol must obtain a permit from the Provincial Administration. Government employees are additionally required to provide evidence of approval from their supervisor. Foreign nationals are not permitted to buy a gun without special permission of the Department of Provincial Administration.
